LIKE A STRING OF PEARLS PULLED UP FROM THE SEA, the jewels of your voyage are its exclusive amenities and unmatched encounters. And much like King Kamehameha did back in 1810—uniting the islands into a joyous kingdom—you'll follow suit, uniting the islands on harmonic voyage of exploration, exchanges with locals, and learning about Hawaii's rich, Polynesian-influenced culture. Your inter-island yacht adventure promises to be filled with pleasantries, high-quality service, and warm alohas.

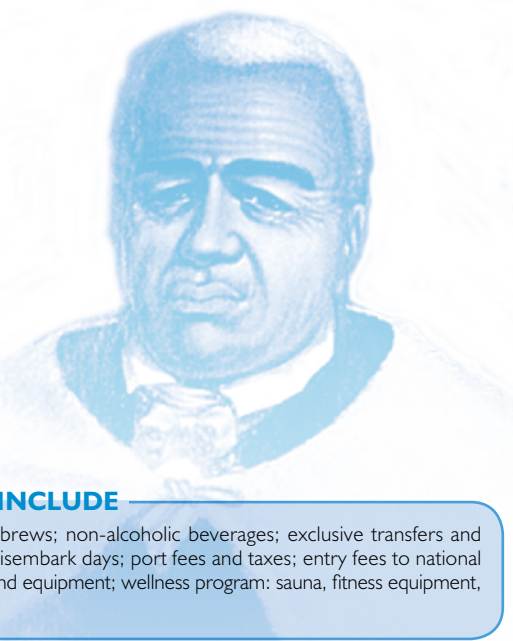

Days 2-6

Get a sense of Hawaii long ago and talk story with the locals. Join your mostly local crew and be enticed by Hawaiian legend and the hula's soothing rhythm. During a week of kayaking, snorkeling, paddle boarding, and cultural visits ashore, the history of this ancient homeland unfolds. With no stop lights and no high-rises, you'll welcome leisure time in the paniolo town of Kaunakakai, the lingering scent of plumeria, and Moloka'i's slower pace. Gear up for water play at Lāna'i and hike to the island's spatter and cinder cone, perhaps paddle an outrigger from a Maui beach and linger under Lahaina's giant Banyan tree (with tuneful Myna's perched limb-to-limb). The Humpback National Marine Sanctuary provides front-row seats as you cruise through the marine breeding grounds in search of dolphins, whales, and other marine life. By skiff, explore shores lined with lava tubes and coconut palm fringed bays along the island of Hawai'i. Discover coral gardens chock-full of colorful corals and underwater life, snorkel in a known sea turtle habitat by day, and at night, with Giant Pacific Manta rays. The spirit of Aloha.

Days 7-8

On your last day, skiff into Kealahou Bay—where Captain Cook was slain in 1779—for some of the islands' best snorkeling. Uncover historic Kailua-Kona as you leisurely stroll around town.

This evening, celebrate at the Captain's Dinner and photographic recap of your adventure. After docking at Kawaihae Harbor, you'll be transferred to the Kona Airport or to your extended Un-Cruise hotel stay.

FARES INCLUDE

All onboard meals; premium spirits, fine wine, microbrews; non-alcoholic beverages; exclusive transfers and baggage handling between airport/vessel on embark/disembark days; port fees and taxes; entry fees to national parks/preserves; all from-the-yacht adventure activities and equipment; wellness program: sauna, fitness equipment, yoga mats, and a complimentary massage
